Man at Work
She's No Sailor
One for the Road

A disheveled appearance doesn't deduct from the natural dignity of a man in a laboring frame of mind. This happened in Hope last week according to Dr. F. D. Henry:

One of our senior plumbers had just completed a particularly mean and dirty inspection job and without bothering to clean himself up he barged into a local cafe and plopped down at the counter for a cup of coffee.

Only then did he notice his companion at the counter — a night of the Road, a panhandler, not quite as dirty as himself.

"Say," said the tramp, "did you have a pretty good morning?"

Our plumber straightened up, looked the bum in the eye, and replied, "I'll have you know, sir, I've been a laboring man for 30 years!"

Seafaring tales have a great vogue in the world of books now-a-days. "The Cruel Sea" and "The Sea Around Us" were best-sellers. I mention the foregoing to explain this wise-crack in the December Book-of-the-Month Club News. Quote —

In the book trade the new Kinsey Report is known as "The She Around Us."

Despite misleading headlines which simply report how many persons are killed in holiday accidents on the highways America's safety record, when stated accurately in terms of vehicle-miles traveled, gets steadily better.

Of course the population is a little larger, and there are more cars, and more miles of travel each year, and so the gross figures on accidents look pretty bad. And they are. The fact that percentage-wise the nation is improving is due largely to the nation-wide campaigns of various safety councils, supplemented by alert state highway patrols.

We always hear from these safety groups just ahead of a major holiday. And so this past week-end brought me a letter that the Maryland Traffic Safety Commission has addressed to individual editors all over America. Paul E. Burke, director, opened his letter with the remark that last year "during the twin four-day observances of Christmas and New Year's 952 persons were killed and some 13,000 others injured in highway accidents."

And then Mr. Burke goes on to say that the tavern owners of Maryland, Virginia, and the District of Columbia met with him in a safety conference. Out of this meeting came a resolution requiring all taverns in the three areas to serve free coffee as the final drink for departing guests — the "one for the road."

Coffee, of course, is an antidote for alcohol.

This year Pennsylvania and Delaware are joining in the Maryland regulation for tavern-keepers. Mr. Burke notes that there are 144,000 taverns throughout America, not to mention hotels, clubs, and restaurants where merry-makers gather also — and he thinks the Maryland Plan for a Coffee Good Night will be helpful.

Of course Arkansas has no taverns in the Eastern sense as places where mixed drinks are publicly sold, but we do have a worse highway death record than any of the big tavern states — a dubious tribute to our ingenious ways of lawlessness.

But Mr. Burke has a message for us, too. So we have no taverns. But do our celebrating at home. Well, here's the Maryland Plan for all you home celebrants this Christmas time:

"The private host has no legal obligation for a guest's welfare after that guest passes through the front door. However, there is a moral responsibility for his safe arrival home that no considerate host can ignore. I would like to see coffee served as 'One for the Road' at the close of every festivity."

It makes sense. It always makes sense to leave off idle lecturing and give folks some practical advice on how to get home in one piece.

Second Deer Season Opens

The second Arkansas deer season got underway this morning and will continue through Saturday, December 19. A bleak, cold morning greeted hunters brave enough to go out. Game officials believe the kill will be much lower the second year.

H-Blast Likely to Exceed All Bombs in War II

By ELTON C. FAY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The hydrogen weapon blast the United States plans for the Bikini Atoll test this spring may exceed the total power of all bombs dropped by the huge American Air Forces in World War II.

That figure was slightly over two million tons of TNT. President Eisenhower said in his speech Tuesday to the United Nations General Assembly that "hydrogen weapons are in the range of millions of tons of TNT's equivalent."

The Bikini demonstration will may help resolve any doubts left after that speech about the need for international atomic accord, although the test was not devised for the primary purpose of giving the world's citizens the "comprehension" of atomic warfare and danger.

Planned long before Eisenhower took office as president it will be another stage of the progressive step up in hydrogen explosions.

The test at Bikini will show what could happen to the United States as well as to Russia in a war with hydrogen weapons—an awesome argument for atomic peace. The last atomic explosion at Bikini probably will become, by comparison, a puny little pop. The two test bombs used there in 1949 tests had an energy equivalent to about 20,000 tons of TNT. An air burst bomb sank ships, crushed others with the shock wave, set others to burning. An underwater burst sent a big carrier, a battleship and other vessels to the bottom. But neither left any mark on the islands fringing the lagoon.

Sometime next spring, when the seasonal change comes in the direction of the trade winds, which can carry radioactive contamination long distances, the face of the atoll may change in a fierce and fleeting instant.

Snow Falls in Some Parts of Arkansas

The harbinger of Christmas—snow—fell in some sections of Arkansas today.

Fayetteville, Little Rock, El Paso, Mountain Home and Eureka Springs all reported a trace of snow.

The low temperature reported this morning was 32 at Fayetteville and Newport. It was 37 at Fort Smith, Little Rock, Pine Bluff, Morrilton and Ozark.

Wife Slayer to Ask New Trial

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (UP)—The attorney for convicted wife slayer George P. Hetenyi said today he would try again to obtain a fourth trial for him.

Lawyer William L. Clay said Hetenyi, former clergyman now in Attica prison, asked him to apply to a judge of the highest state court, the Court of Appeals, for permission to appeal to that court from the unanimous decision handed down Nov. 18 by the appellate division.

1953 Is a Year of Postponed Decisions, a Generation That Lives With Fingers Crossed

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—The seers and sages already are weighing a vanishing year, as 1953 becomes just another cobblestone on the long road of time.

What kind of year has it been? How will it be remembered?

The historians will say it was a year of political upheavals, of dark doubts unresolved, of titanic decisions postponed.

The economists will say the nation's pocketbook stood the strain, but will warn business could take a turn for the worse or, on the other hand, for the better.

The radical spokesmen will say the health of America was never higher, even though more people complained of a tired, rundown feeling.

Court Upholds Judgment for $10,000

By LEON HATCH

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Supreme Court, in a 4-3 decision, today affirmed a $10,000 judgment for A. O. Terry, Saline County merchant who disappeared for two months in 1949-50.

After Terry returned home, saying he had been a victim of amnesia, he filed suit in Pulaski Circuit Court against Plunkett-Jarrell Grocery and other wholesalers.

Terry claimed that his creditors had converted the assets, including open accounts, of his Saline County store while he was away. His store was operated by his wife and daughter during his absence.

The trial jury returned judgments in his favor and three were affirmed by the Supreme Court. The majority opinion was written by Associate Justice Ed McPadden.

Separate dissenting opinions were entered by Chief Justice Griffin Smith and associate Justices George Rouse Smith and Sam Holmston.

Terry disappeared on Nov. 2, 1949. He reappeared late in January of 1950. He said he had been stricken with amnesia, but that his memory had been restored when an acquaintance called him by name at a church in Hattiesburg, Miss.

The Supreme Court affirmed a three-year sentence for assault to rape imposed on Winston Harrison of Arkadelphia in Hot Springs County Circuit Court.

He was convicted of an attack on a 16-year old Arkadelphia high school girl last June 27.

Justices George Rouse Smith and Robinson dissented.

Pair Jailed Here Wanted in Florida

A man listed as Earl Clark, 26, and an 18-year-old girl were jailed here last night for investigation which revealed the pair was driving a stolen car and the man was wanted for armed robbery in Florida, City Police said.

Picked up while sleeping in the car by City Officers Pedron and Bearden the pair posed as brother and sister. The girl already has listed her name two ways and of ficers are still not sure of her identity.

Information from Miami Fla. reveals the auto was stolen there on Thursday Dec. 10 and that Clark wanted for armed robbery details of which were not immediately learned, local officers said.

Meanwhile both are being held in jail pending further investigation.

Farmers to Decide Price Support Level

By LEON HATCH

The outcome of the cotton marketing quota referendum to be held throughout the Nation's cotton-growing area December 15 will determine the level of price support for cotton produced in 1954 and therefore is of vital concern to every cotton grower, says H. B. Gilbert, Chairman of the Hempstead County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

The marketing quota program will be in operation for next year's crop, the chairman explains, if at least two-thirds of the votes cast in the referendum are in favor of program. In that case the grower who stays within his acreage allotment will be eligible for 90 percent of purity price support on his 1954 cotton. If his farm has more acreage than the allotment, he will be subject to a 50 percent of purity penalty on his excess cotton.

If more than one-third of the votes are against quotas, the price support level to cooperators drops to 50 percent of purity. Whether the vote is favorable or unfavorable, no price support will be available on cotton for the grower who overplants his cotton allotment.

The choice before cotton growers, according to Chairman Gilbert, essentially is whether or not they want a reduced acreage and 90 percent of purity price support, or from an unlimited acreage and what ever the market will bring for the crop. What effect will this decision have on my income in future years in the light of current and prospective large surplus supplies of cotton? What would be my decision if I could get decided for all the cotton growers in the country?

Chairman Gilbert emphasizes that he cannot an will not indicate how cotton growers should vote, but he emphasizes urges all growers to vote in the referendum. In his opinion, the decision will have far-reaching effects and the official and the question deserves the serious study and the carefully considered vote of all who grows cotton.

The referendum will be held between the hours of 8:00 a. m. and 5:00 p. m. on December 15 at the places:

- Springhill, Collins Grocery.
- Palmas, Rider's Store.
- Shover Springs, Ottwell's Store.
- Hope, Court House.
- Fulton, Odon's Store.
- Cross Roads, Gilbert's Store.
- Washington, Washington Hardware.
- DeAnn Samuel's Store - Baird's Chapel.
- Blevins, Foster's Store - Sweet Home Church.
- McCaslin, School Building.
- Bingen, Wolf's Store.
- Ozan, Jones's Store.

Barber Becomes Head of State Republicans

By LEON HATCH

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A. L. Barber of Little Rock became chairman of the Republican State Committee today after his opponent, Verne Tindall of Stuttgart, stopped an appeal by conceding the election.

The result of the vote to choose a successor to Otto Cobb of Little Rock, who resigned to become U. S. District Attorney for Eastern Arkansas, was announced as 49 for Barber to 48 for Tindall.

Earlier, Cobb said the national administration may next year to replace many Democrats on the federal payroll with Republicans.

National GOP leaders are "just as anxious as you and I to see loyal and qualified Republicans brought into the federal service with a minimum of delay," Cobb told the Arkansas State Republican Committee.

The Committee met here today to choose a successor for Cobb, who is stepping down as state chairman to become U.S. district attorney for Eastern Arkansas.

Cobb told the party stalwarts that President Eisenhower may ask the next session of Congress to remove Democratic "road-blocks" that have prevented personnel changes.

Many Democrats bemoan the small jobs in Washington because of civil service protection.

His his parting speech, Cobb declared that the Eisenhower administration is doing a "good, solid job with the mess found in Washington."

Warns Russia Only Changing Tactics

By KENNETH MILLER

PARIS. (UP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles warned today that the Soviet Union is changing its tactics—but not its policies—in an attempt to get the Western alliance to drop its guard.

Informed sources said Dulles told a secret session of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization Council of Ministers that their 14 countries must continue to build strength. Force, he said, is the only means of convincing the Russians to negotiate for peace on a realistic basis.

He repeated his frequent appeal for quick ratification of the European Defense Community project by which 500,000 German troops would be added to the NATO's armies.

But French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault served notice, in opening a three-day NATO meeting, that France will require guarantees from the United States and Great Britain as the price of its ratification.

'Where Did I Fail', Cries Mother as Son Scorns U. S., Will Not Leave Communists

TOKYO (AP)—"Where did I fail him. Oh, where did I fail?" an American mother sobbed today after learning from her son that he will not leave the Communists and return home.

Tears welled in her eyes, Mrs. Portia Howe of Alden, Minn., held in her lap a two-page letter from her soldier son, one of the 22 Americans in the barbed wire prison Communist camp at Panmunjom.

"I know that you want to take me home with you, but I have made up my mind and I am not going," Mr. Richard R. Tennessee wrote his mother, who flew 7,000 miles in the hope of persuading him to come back.

His letter renounced life in the United States and heaped scorn on his country.

A New Testament in her hand the 43-year-old mother spoke bitterly of communism.

"I want his whole letter released to the public. I think people should know how vicious a thing communism is. If it can destroy a home, it can disintegrate a nation."

"I have not given up hope that someday my son will come back to me. I have not given up my faith in God nor Richard. Sooner or later he will see the light."

And turning to her Bible she read from Proverbs 23-6: "Train up a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it."

In his letter, the 20-year-old Tennessee, only 17 when he left the United States, jeered at his country and said United States authorities are afraid to let her visit him at Panmunjom.

Dean Predicts Reds to Return to Conferences

By FRANK JORDAN

PANMUNJOM, Korea, Tuesday, (UP)—U. S. Negotiator Arthur H. Dean predicted today that the Reds will come back to the conference table to arrange a Korean peace conference "as soon as they realize we mean business."

Dean washed his hands of his own little efforts to break the Communist stalling tactics and broke off the talks on Saturday. He will fly home to Washington later today.

Both Red China and Communist North Korea promptly bore out his predictions that the Reds will call for resumption of the talks their tactics disrupted by broad-astling demands that Dean remain in Korea and resume the preliminary discussion of conference arrangements.

The property Wall Street lawyer and negotiator told the Allied forces they should be prepared however, to meet any situation that may arise if the peace conference never comes off. He said Allied troops should be lined up in South Korea to handle the return of anti-Communist war prisoners if the conference hasn't been set up by the Jan. 22 deadline.

He said the U.N. forces should be standing by ready to feed, shelter and make other provisions for the men when they walk out of the custodial camps into what very likely will be sub-zero weather.

20 Floats, 5 Bands in Yule Parade Thurs.

The Christmas parade scheduled for Thursday, December 17 at 7:00 p. m. promises to be quite an outstanding event. Five bands and some 20 floats are definitely lined up for this occasion.

Immediately following the parade presented by the Retail Merchants of Hope Chamber of Commerce, there will be a community wide song fest held on the Depot Corner. Rev. Ed Pendleton will direct the singing and Luther Hollman will be at the electric organ to provide the accompaniment. The Hope High School Glee Club will provide the floats of note to assist the song leader for the occasion.

If your voice isn't in the finest fettle, then begin so preparing for this most enjoyable evening. All of the old familiar Christmas carols will be sung with everyone participating, and certainly everyone will want to sing these songs of praise to our Lord and Savior, whose day we soon shall celebrate.

Federal Jury May Indict Witnesses

KANSAS CITY, Mo., (UP)—Federal government said today in grand jury investigation could lead to indictments in connection with "prior testimony" in connection with the missing Greenlease ransom money.

A dozen witnesses from St. Louis were under subpoena, including a blond mystery woman whose identity was closely guarded.

U.S. Dist. Atty. Edward L. Scheufler, who prosecuted kidnappers Carl Austin Hall and Bonnie Brown Head, declined to name the mystery woman and one other witness.

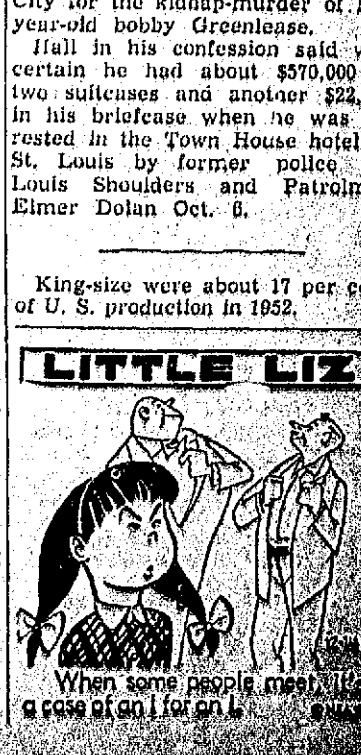

Hall and Mrs. Headly will die at 12:01 a. m. Friday in Missouri lethal gas chamber at Jefferson City for the kidnap-murder of six-year-old Bobby Greenlease.

Hall in his confession said was certain he had about $570,000 in two suitcases and another $22,000 in his briefcase when he was arrested in the Town House hotel at St. Louis by former police St. Louis Shoulders and Patrolman Elmer Dolan Oct. 8.

WHAT A JOB—Since the abolition of capital punishment in Germany, there's been a shortage of anatomical material for schools and hospitals. To ease the problem, a small factory near Baden-Baden started a rapidly growing business making bones and skeletons out of plastic. Here a factory worker puts the finishing touch on one of the models.

South Korea, UN Sign Program

SEOUL, Korea (UP)—The United Nations and South Korea signed today a $500,000,000 program to rebuild the war-wrecked country and combat inflation. The agreement was signed by ROK Prime Minister Park Tooh Chin and C. Tyler Wood, United Nations economic coordinator, after three months of negotiations on how the money should be spent. The money, earmarked for fiscal 1954, was contributed largely by the U. S. government, but some if it will come from U. N. relief funds.

Almost half the total, $200,000,000, was voted by the U. S. Congress to meet one of South Korean President Syngman Rhee's demands for signing the Korean armistice.

Mrs. Sam Strong gave a Christmas story entitled "To Springvale for Christmas," by Zona Gale. Christmas gifts were then exchanged with seventeen members and one guest, Mrs. J. C. Carlton.

LADYBUG HUNTER—Lots of ladybugs bedded down for the winter, will wake up in the spring and find themselves owned by O. B. Lester, of Sonora, Calif. Lester goes into the mountain canyons to hunt the hibernating insects and brings them down on a pack horse where they are then stored in a cooler. Farmers whose fields are ravaged by insects buy the ladybugs for $10 per gallon. The ladybugs destroy thrips, aphides and other plant marauders.

WHAT A FOOT—Deeply impressed, this young German girl compares the size of her foot of a prehistoric monster. The giant bones, blackened by age, are on exhibit at the Senckenberg Museum of Nature in Frankfurt.

Attorney No w Never Finished Eight Grade

BY HARMAN W. NICHOLS

WASHINGTON. —(UP)—A paragraph in the papers about a character who was denied his high school diploma 22 years ago because he forgot to make out a book report reminded me of a friend of mine.

I hope I don't get Attorney Robert M. Wolfe, of Norwalk, Conn., in any serious trouble, but he tells me that he has been running around practicing law these many years without ever getting legal release from the eighth grade.

Bob has practiced before the State Supreme Court in Connecticut he has helped to win a number of cases for the maritime administration, and he has prepared briefs for the highest tribunal in the land—the U. S. Supreme Court.

Miss Lamour Called Former Actress

SANA ANA, Calif. —(UP)—A defense attorney's reference to film star Dorothy Lamour as a "former actress" goaded her into anger during testimony at the assault of Adolph H. Sprackels II.

The clash occurred yesterday when the sarong girl of the movies appeared as a witness for Sprackels' ex-wife Kay Williams, who charges the millionaire sugar heir beat her into unconsciousness with her own home last Aug. 22 when he went to his Balboa Island home to see their two children.

Chief Defense Attorney Daniel Schabel asked Miss Lamour wife of Orlan William Howard III "You were down as Dorothy Lamour at one time"

"Is still am," she replied. "You are a former actress, is that not correct?" Schabel continued.

"If you wish to put it that way," Miss Lamour rapped, "I belong to the Screen Actors' Guild, for your information."

She told reporters later she had made three pictures this year. Testimony of the actress and that of her husband and her stepson, William IV, 20, was a direct conflict with that of a relief nurse for the Sprackels' children, Mrs. Anna Warner.

The Howards testified emphatically that Miss Williams, 36, was not intoxicated when he was at their home the night before the alleged beating.

Mr. Warner testified Miss Williams was in such a "condition" that she would have been afraid to drive with her.

Miss Lamour also testified that when she was called to Miss Williams' apartment the day of the alleged beating, Miss Williams was bleeding from a gash on her forehead and had to be helped into a car to go to a hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Boyle, former neighbors of Sprackels, told the court they heard a woman screaming for help other morning of the alleged assault.

Adolph H. Sprackels, 34, once believed Miss Williams 5½-ounce jeweled sadal was heavy enough to inflict "great bodily harm." But he added, "that would be some thing for a doctor to decide."
